

THE AUTOPHONE.

A BEAUTIFUL, AUTOMATIC MUSICAL INSTRUMENT.

Capable of playing accurately, and in perfect harmony, all classes of music.

Contains 22 notes, and plays in three different keys.

All exposed metallic parts nickel plated, and wood of solid walnut, well finished.

Autophone, with music amounting to 50c., $3.50.

Forwarded by Express on receipt of price.

If desired will send instrument by Express C. O. D., giving privilege of examination before paying collection.

This trade card from the turn-of-the-century promotes the Horton Autophone, one of the first of many organettes made in the United States. It must have been quite expensive for its time, costing nearly a weeks' wages.

Submitted by Contributing Editor Gary G. Stevenson.